

GTB - The Golden Ticket Boyz are quickly distinguishing themselves as avant-garde artist by providing hip-hop lovers with hot beats and profound lyrics. GTB's popularity is constantly increasing with the grass roots marketing on My Space and YouTube. You can also catch up with them at www.goldenticketboyz.com.

With prolific style and originality, it did not take long for these artists to be recognized. GTB was awarded the opportunity to open for the Atlanta Hawks in November 2007. That electrifying performance led the management of the Basketball Hall of Fame to invite GTB to perform at the Hoops Hall Experience (HHX) before the likes of Dominique Wilkins, Josh Smith and Josh Childress.

Created in 2007 by two young men that share the same love of great music, William "Cloccwerk" Smith II and Jordan "Inche$" Charles met while in biology class at Northview High School. They quickly discovered that they possessed a unique ear for music. As fate would have it, both Inche$ and Cloccwerk are bold and innovative rappers/producers. They immediately began to collaborate and became each other's sounding boards.

From a very early age, William "Cloccwerk" Smith II was exposed to a very musically conscious environment. Inspired by the sounds of R & B, Rap, Jazz and Funk, Cloccwerk started making beats as a hobby when he was twelve years old. Cloccwerk's interest for creating his unique style of sound outgrew the creation aspect and during his adolescent years, Cloccwerk acquired the craft of rhyming. His powerful words and sense of humor help him to paint vivid pictures that literally jump out and grab you. His stage presence commands attention and his charm is irresistible.

Reared in Opa-Locka, Florida and now residing in Georgia, Jordan "Inche$" Charles is considered a phenomenal producer with the most poetic proficiency and exquisite wordplay as a lyricist. One of the things that stand out when you hear his style for the first time is his unique cadence that captivates his listeners. "Rapping is something I've been doing since I was in elementary school. I've always had a dream of being on BET or MTV and performing in front of a crowd." Inche$, a revolutionary sound architect, is destined to achieve artistic greatness.

GTB's mission is to create their own style and inspire others using their music. They will continue to be found putting heart and soul into their musical productions: replete with positivity, melody, thicker arrangements, and intricate lyrics.
